A great place to start; the right place to stay

Decisions. Should your first job be in a large firm or a small firm? Both have their advantages and disadvantages. Which firm should you choose? Tough call. Jones & Roth is one of the few firms in the Pacific Northwest that can offer you a blend of large and small firm benefits.

We are one of the larger firms in Oregon. We are 90-plus wonderful people, nineteen specialized industry and service teams, plus three offices statewide yet our entire staff still gets together at least once a year for a day-long work/social event. Despite all our many clients and deadlines, we still have time for summer picnics, holiday parties, baby showers, sports teams, parking lot BBQs, and popsicles in the freezer. Learn more at www.jrcpa.com.

We're always looking for people with skill and passion.
