

BETA ALPHA PSI

WEEK 3, 4, & 5

January 22nd & 29th & February 5th

JANUARY 22, WEEK 3—COGENCE GROUP

Early Career Success, how does that happen?

Jay Sickler, is an OSU grad and founder of Cogence Group, a specialized financial forensics firm in Portland. He will be talking about early career success, and how to make that success happen. Jay has worked in international accounting firms on two continents, and over the past 20 years in Portland he has established himself as the top expert witness in the areas of financial forensics and business valuation. He has testified as an expert in more than 100 cases. After 30 years of professional experience, he knows what it takes to make it in both very large and very small firms.

JANUARY 29, WEEK 4—IRS SPECIAL AGENT

IRS Hiring Process and IRS Investigations

Nick Warner graduated from OSU's COB in 2001. He has an undergrad degree in finance and an MBA. This presentation will be on the hiring process and qualifications for an accounting job with the federal government.

FEBRUARY 5, WEEK 5—MOSS ADAMS, KPMG, DELOITTE, PwC

Recruiter Panel

Recruiters from all of these firms will provide information on leadership programs and hold Q&A for accounting students.