2014 DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

We're Thinking of a Number. . .

But we won't make you guess. It's $3,500. That's the scholarship amount we're awarding to selected students with exceptional qualifications. If you're interested in pursuing a degree—and a career—in accounting, we invite you to apply for our 2014 Diversity Scholarship.

Established by the Moss Adams Foundation, the scholarship will be applied toward tuition and/or related costs for seven outstanding students. Our goal is to help promote diversity in the accounting profession.

About the Moss Adams Foundation

A 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, the Moss Adams Foundation is funded by Moss Adams LLP. Its programs promote accounting excellence in teaching, research, and curriculum and support charitable organizations and causes.

Eligibility

We're seeking bright and ambitious sophomores who have approximately three years remaining in their coursework and a strong desire to pursue both an accounting degree and a career in public accounting.

We'll select students based on a number of factors, including academic achievement, demonstrated leadership skills, extracurricular activities (particularly those in leadership roles in diversity organizations), and effective communication skills. Qualifications include:

DEGREE	Pursuing bachelor's degree
MAJOR	Accounting or related field
GPA	3.0 or higher
